Eligibility to vote

You must enrol if you live in NZ and are:

- 18 or older, and
- a citizen or a permanent resident of NZ, and
- have ever lived in NZ continuously for one year or more.

You can enrol at 17 but can't vote until you're 18.

If you live overseas, you can enrol for the 2023 General Election if you're a:

- NZ citizen who has been in NZ within the last 6 years, or
- NZ permanent resident and have been in NZ in the last 4 years.

After the 2023 election this will change back to 3 years for NZ citizens and 12 months for NZ permanent residents.

For electoral purposes, a permanent resident is anyone lawfully in NZ and not required to leave within a specific time. This includes someone on a resident visa.

If you're Australian, Cook Islander, Niuean, or Tokelauan you can enrol if you've lived in NZ continuously for one year or more. If this applies to you, you don't need a resident visa to enrol.

Personal safety

If having your information on the published electoral roll threatens you or your family's personal safety, you can apply to go on the unpublished roll. The unpublished roll is confidential. To learn more visit us at vote.nz

What address should I use?

Use the address you consider to be your home. Your home address does not change if you sometimes live away from home for your work or education.

Māori descent and roll choice

For enrolment purposes, Māori descent means you are descended from a NZ Māori. This includes Chatham Island Māori, but not Cook Island Māori.

If you're of Māori descent, you can choose to enrol on the Māori roll or the general roll.

Your choice is important. The roll you choose to be on affects your electorate vote but not your party vote in parliamentary elections. If you're on the Māori roll, you'll vote for a candidate in a Māori electorate. If you're on the general roll you'll vote for a candidate in a general electorate. The number of people on the Māori roll also affects the number of Māori seats in Parliament.

For local elections if you're on the Māori roll and your council has a Māori ward or constituency, you'll vote for a candidate in the Māori ward or constituency.

You can change the roll you're on at any time except:

- in the 3 months before a general election,
- in the 3 months before the local elections held every 3 years, and
- during a parliamentary by-election if it puts you in the electorate where the by-election is being held.
